Book Review: Bad Blood (Kate Shugak, #20) by Dana Stabenow ...

"Bad Blood" the twentieth and, as far as I can see, the last book in the Kate Shugak series, is a hard book for me to write about without breaking my personal rule of not including spoilers in reviews. Yet I don't want to leave it unmarked. I did that with "Hunter's Moon" the tenth book in the series because the content was so intense.

I'm a big Kate Shugak fan and I really enjoy stories set in Alaska, but I was really disappointed by Bad Blood. It is nowhere near the quality of the rest of the series. There is too much exposition in the beginning; there is no need to recap so much from previous books in the series.
