Roman Catholic Funeral Planning Guides

A Catholic funeral traditionally includes three parts: a vigil (wake) service in the home or at a funeral home, the funeral Mass in the church, and committal prayers at the cemetery. The priest, deacon or lay ecclesial minister who assists in planning the funeral rites will work with the family to select the most appropriate liturgical format.

CATHOLIC FUNERAL PLANNING GUIDE - portlanddiocese.org

As human beings, we have an intense need to say goodbye to our loved ones and to commend them to God. The Church's rites reflect that need, as her prayers accompany the deceased beyond this life. There are three parts to a Catholic funeral. First, there is a vigil service, which typically takes place the night before the funeral. Here, family and friends gather to "be with" and "watch over" the body of the deceased.
