Library Journal "The Devil's Whisper is clever and compelling, with twists and turns aplenty to keep the pages turning." Jeff Abbott, author of Collision and Trust Me, "Miyabe's forte is suspense. . . . [the] fascination of the story lies in its acute observations of the way masochistic shame and guilt play into the social conformity so inhibiting to the Japanese identity."

The Devils Whisper: Miyabe, Miyuki, Iwabuchi, Deborah ...

I've been intrigued by all Miyabe's books, but this is my favorite. The Devil's Whisper is a highly original thriller, an edgy exploration of morality - and an inside look at Japanese society. The author is Japan's best selling mystery writer. The narrative starts with the shocking deaths of three beautiful young women - two suicides and an accident.
